Ocoee River

Paddle like an Olympian on the Ocoee River. Home to the 1996 Atlanta Games whitewater venue, the Ocoee is the only Olympic Whitewater rafting experience available in the Western Hemisphere. This rip-roaring river leaves little time in between rapids to prepare for what's ahead! You'll be soaked, smiling and totally impressed.

★ Middle:

Class III-IV • 12 yrs old - $49.99*

The most famous rafting trip in the world—it put Tennessee whitewater on the map.

● Combo:

Class III-V • 13 yrs old - $99.99*

Start your trip on the Upper Ocoee, running what was the 1996 Olympic Canoe and Kayak course, and finish with the Middle Ocoee, the most popular Tennessee whitewater. (lunch included)

*Quoted prices are standard summer rates. Discounts may be available for fall and spring, and peak rates apply to summer Saturdays and holidays. Prices exclude taxes and fees. Group rates are available.

Pigeon River

In just a short drive over the mountains, you can raft along the northern border of Great Smoky Mountains National Park. A great river for all experience levels, the Upper Pigeon provides a full dose of Class III excitement and scenery in just three short hours. For families with children, the Lower Pigeon is the perfect float trip with gentle rapids, swimming holes and, of course, beautiful scenery.

★ Upper Pigeon:

Class III-IV • 8 yrs old or 70 lb min - $39.99*

● Lower Pigeon:

Class I-II • 3-7 yrs old - $24.99*, 8 yrs and up - $29.99*

Nolichucky River

Raft the rapids formed by the headwaters that flow off the highest peaks east of the Mississippi River. The Nolichucky Gorge is a hidden whitewater gem, offering an escape into the wild. You'll find yourself between the walls of the gorge on some of the most intimate trips NOC offers. The water level of the "Noli" dictates the experience—mild or wild!
